The entire question of the scales of Private Secretary to H.H. his salary etc will be examined early. The present incumbent is only acting. There was no idea, I believe, because of his acting appointment, that he should get more emoluments than his seniors. If the present salary of Rs 2,000 is considered to be the substantive salary of Pr. Sec to H.H, then an acting incumbent gets 1/5 of that salary viz 400 Rs But there is nothing to show conclusively that the P.S's post carries any fixed salary. It has been varying according to the [illegible] terms and conditions from time to time made, and granted the P.S who has just retired Rs 3000/- per month. (contd)
